FAQ

What's included with your order?

- Commercial Rights (for unpaid media use only)
- One revisions (up to 150-words)
- HQ .WAV audio file
- A script is required.
- $15 per 5 separate files within one script

What is in your included Revision?

The first free revision includes any editing errors. If you need to make a script revision or would like a different style/tone for the full audio, a charge will incur dependent on word length/technical requirements. Second revisions with new issues incur a fee. Revision includes editing or recording errors *—it does not include script changes or tonal re-records. I pace naturally; Video sync incurs additional fee.

What if I need to change my Requirements?

Once you have sent your requirements, any subsequent changes may incur a fee (and will likely cause a delay.) Because my delivery time is so quick (and even shorter for 24 hour turnaround!) any changes may cause delays. I get to work right away on most orders; thank you for your understanding.

Religious Voiceovers / Political Voiceovers / Explicit/Sexual Voiceovers

I generally don't do voiceovers that fall into these categories. If you are unsure, please feel free to check with me. Thank you for your understanding!
